

This month

Traditionally, the new quarter is announced in March. And yes, it was announced and we will tell you all about it in this newsletter. But there is more ...

The upcoming Mary Poppins event will be one of the news items and also the suspension of the Opening Title of this Disney Classic.

Prince Phillip, but the release has been postponed. It will be released in April instead.

Finally, March promised us a new release of Aurora and

The new quarter has been announced and it looks very promising.

scene. Apart from this Opening Title there will be a new Opening Title from the Silly Symphonies (€32,50) as well and we'll see an Opening Plaque (€17) with the official logo from the Mickey Mouse Club (both are expected to be released in June).

Ludwig von Drake, the "educated" professor from Disney's television show Wonderful World of Disney will appear in May and will be sold for €180.

In April we will see a completely new set consisting of Madam Mim, Merlin, Archimedes and Wart (transformed into a bird). This set, which will only be sold by Gold Circle Dealers, is limited to 750 pieces worldwide and will cost €325.

Also, a new Opening Title from The Sword in the Stone has been released: the perfect addition to the new

The Mickey Mouse Club scene keeps on growing: Pluto is the newest addition to this memorable series and will cost €125.

The well known and popular It's a Small World series grows as well: Scotland will play the main part. The figurine comes with an accessory of a Scottish castle and mountains. Its price, like most sculptures from this series, will be €99 (please continue reading on the next page).

Second Quarter (cont.)

Members of the Walt Disney Collectors Society, who are so called Charter members (memberships from the inception of the WDCS), have the opportunity to buy the sculpture of Mickey and Minnie from the Cartoon First Flight: it will cost €299.

The Silly Symphonies series expands with a sculpture of The Old Mill (€150), and it looks like the Enchanted Places return (although unofficially).

Of course, we won't forget the Signature series: this new set is discussed in this newsletter (Spotlight section).

Finally, we already knew some of the new releases (Ursula, Jasper & Horace), but they are certainly not less spectacular: they are on their way!

A complete overview can be found on our website: please look at our new releases page!

Fifer Pig's flute

A lot of people don't know it, but the sculpture of Fifer Pig from the famous Disney cartoon The Three Little Pigs is very special.

This pig has, typically, his flute and that's what's so special. This instrument is made of brass and has been hand painted to create the effect of a real wooden flute.

The most special thing about this flute are the holes. The holes have been positioned in the exact same place as theory, it's possible to play music on it.

on a "real" flute and, in

Did you know ...

... that the sculpture Flight of Fancy (the cupid from the Disney Classic Fantasia) has a backstamp placed on one of the wings?

In the Spotlights: The Curse is Broken

The Curse is Broken is the title from the newest addition to the Signature series.

This set, consisting of Belle, the Prince, Lumière, Cogsworth, Babette, Mrs. Potts & Chip and the dog, is expected to be released in July 2007 and it is a numbered and limited edition of 1,000 sets. The base is special: it is possible to display this base from two sides.

This spectacular release from this exclusive series is plussed with pewter, resin and felt and its creation was a real challenge for sculptor Dusty Horner.

Although it is not certain, it is very likely that these characters will not be portrayed in the near future (perhaps they will never be portrayed anymore) by the Walt Disney Classics Collection.

The issue price will be €1750. Larger photos can be found on the website: the new releases page!

Practically Perfect Spring Event

Normally, we answer a question from a collector in this newsletter, however, because of the upcoming event we wanted to discuss this in the newsletter.

During the weekend of March 23rd until March 25th, 2007 the Practically Perfect Spring Premiere Event will be held. Mary Poppins, the mysterious Nanny from the Disney Classic Mary Poppins, is the star of the weekend. The sculpture, which can be bought during this weekend, stands about 30 cms tall and was created by Kent Melton. It's a numbered limited edition of 3,500 pieces and the issue price is €175.

A short while ago the Opening Title from the Disney feature has been suspended: this means that it will not be produced at this time, but that the production may be resumed at a later date. This, however, is not certain at all and now may be the perfect opportunity to buy the Opening Title.

Get and Collect, WDCG Fansite

The Get and Collect, WDCG Fansite was started for one reason: to inform the collector about this collection.

The website went online in February 2005 and was primarily focused on the European collector, because other sites were mainly focused on American collectors.

Currently, the website has grown significantly and it has become a reference work for many visitors from the entire world. Because of our cooperation with other people, we are able to bring you the latest WDCG news.

Our main goal remains the same: to be a source of WDCG information for every collector.

Would you like to see a specific figurine discussed in "In the Spotlights" or do you have other remarks, wishes or questions? Please send us an e-mail: info@getandcollect.nl.
